Venue: Pavilion CCSL, UTM Skudai.
Theme: Classical Malay.
Involvement: Students of UTM and class of UKQS2212 of 2019 consisting 34 stage crews and 8 main actors.
Role: Director/President.
Situation: Good weather, outdoors, audience kept growing.

Feelings: Anxious, nervous, excited, gratitude, delighted.
Thoughts: Afraid of failure, being prepared for any mistake, happy with the outcome, appreciating the cooperation.
Reasons: Audience might not give any response, possible technical issues, possibility of raining outdoors, crews were all on their feet ready to improve the performance.

Lessons learnt: Teamwork is very important, other people's opinions needed to be taken seriously, there must be discipline in practices.

Future action: Be more considerate, calm, tolerable, and assertive.

Graduate attributes: Leadership, teamworking, cultural, communication and adaptability skills.

Important aspect: Teamwork, discipline, sensitivity in communication, knowledge of art, related past experiences.

Personal perspective: Different people can bring out strength that other people are weak at, every skill is as important as any role in a team, recognizing people's values, and make them feel depended.

Theoretical literature: Team interactions, proactive assistance, creating goals, utilize members' capabilities and talents, and proper environment choices.

Experiences: As theater actress in primary school.

Skills: Acted as a leader before in small programs or group work during school and diploma.

Similarities: Involvement in acting and singing activities.

Differences: The involvement of foreign students, I never had to direct my own theater performance before, trained the actors individually, instructing crews, and making decisions for everyone.
