

Program: Bionite Dinner 2019
Date: 25/4/2019
Time: 7:45 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Venue: Le Grandeur Resort, Senai
Theme: Elegant
Involvement: Bioscience Department's director, academic staffs, 2nd year, 3rd year, and 4th year students.
Role: Moderator
Situation: In a small dining hall, decorated. dim lights, singing performances, gimmicks, speeches, and gifts.

Feelings: Nervous, excited, happy.
Thoughts: I wanted to give the right expressions, intonations, especially on informal speeches.
Reasons: I passed the audition and got picked for this role, the crowds are consisted of various ages of people, people might have different reactions to things that I say.

Lessons learnt: Communication is important for a team to work together, to avoid things from colliding and to achieve an understanding, to know the appropriate things to say in front of the crowd.

Future action: Be more prepared, take more time to practice, be more calm.

Graduate attributes: Teamworking, communication & adaptability skills.

Important aspect: Sensitivity in communication skills, ability to interpret reactions from crowds and how to respond appropriately.

Personal perspective: A lot of practice improves the presentation, communication between the team is important to keep things on track.

Theoretical literature: Involve the audience and stand up for them, make everyone else look smart, understand the purpose of the event, communicate clearly, be ready for the unexpected.

Experiences: Used to be an emcee most of the time during primary school.

Skills: Able to control my expressions and voice.

Similarities: Speaking up according to the script with formal intonations.

Differences: Having to speak informally spontaneously to the crowds along with a partner, having to change the itinerary calmly according to the situation shifts.
