Content of the activity

First and foremost, Dr Nasir gave a short and simple introduction about him and then he started to talk. He talked about successful people. First, those successful people is the one who take a good care of their prayers. Besides, they like to donate to those who in need. There are many ways people can donate by giving out money, do some charity stuffs and many else. Moreover, the one who have self respect of themselves and boundaries in life. For example, at the age of 18 until 30, human will feel lust in their phase and it is normal for human being. Thus, they need to control themselves from doing immoral things. Plus, successful people is responsible and trustworthy. Dr Nasir stated that students should be discipline. For instance, they must come to class earlier or on time because if not, it shows that the students are irresponsible. At the end of the lecture, Dr Nasir said that those who fulfill the criteria will be given heaven after death.
