1. JUSTIFICATION IN JOINING THE ACTIVITIES

Minggu Cinta Rasul or MCR is a spiritually enriching program at UTM that aims to cultivate a profound love for Prophet Muhammad. This collaborative effort among three clubs features insightful lectures on various aspects of the Prophet's life, coupled with Quranic recitations and special prayers dedicated to Prophet Muhammad SAW. Held at the main mosque on the UTM campus, the program not only imparts knowledge but also fosters a sense of unity and spiritual connection within the diverse university community. The event provides a unique opportunity for participants to reflect on the teachings of the Prophet, creating a sacred and communal atmosphere that strengthens their love and appreciation for Prophet Muhammad SAW.

2. THE GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES THAT ARE FOCUSED ON

Key focus areas include spiritual and cultural awareness, as the program aims to deepen understanding and love for Prophet Muhammad through insightful lectures and Quranic recitations. Additionally, the collaborative nature of the event involving three clubs fosters teamwork and a sense of community, contributing to social and interpersonal skills development. The choice of holding the program at the main mosque highlights an emphasis on respect for sacred spaces and cultural traditions. Overall, the MCR for the Prophet serves as a platform to nurture a holistic set of graduate attributes, encompassing spiritual, cultural, and interpersonal dimensions among the participants.

3. CONTENT OF THE ACTIVITIES.

4. SELF-REFLECTION.

Being a part of the Minggu Cinta Rasul or MCR as a crew member has been a truly enlightening experience. Collaborating with other dedicated individuals to bring this program to life has not only enhanced my organizational and teamwork skills but has also deepened my understanding of the importance of cultural and spiritual events. Assisting in the logistical aspects of the program, from setting up the venue to coordinating activities, has provided me with valuable hands-on experience in event management. Moreover, witnessing the impact of the insightful lectures and communal prayers on participants has instilled in me a sense of fulfilment, realizing the significance of contributing to an event that promotes spiritual growth and cultural appreciation. Overall, my role as a crew member in MCR has been an enriching journey that has broadened my perspective and equipped me with practical skills for future endeavours in event coordination and cultural promotion.
