

Introduction + thesis statement

- Cyberbullying is the demonstration of harassing as advanced media or gadgets.
- Thesis :
 - mental and physical effects,
 - feel alone and isolated,
 - victims might get ill

Paragraph 1 : mental and physical effects

- The victims will consequently have lower confidence since that is the sole motivation behind harassing

Paragraph 2 : Feel alone and isolated

- The majority of the victims are compelled to avoid all social destinations in an effort to escape the cyberbullies

Paragraph 3 : victims might get ill

- manifestations like migraines and stomach issues are frequently found in the people in question

Conclusion

Cyberbullying is a serious issue, and it can be truly horrific to go through such a difficult period